The CalSTRS General Counsel Division is recruiting for two positions! Our growing team is seeking highly motivated individuals to work as Attorney V's on the Litigation Services Team! Are you ready to take your career to the next level?

The Office of the General Counsel is comprised of multiple highly visible and complex business areas: Office of Legal Ethics & Accountability (OLEA), Enterprise Information Management & Legal Operations, Information Security Office, Legal Services, Investment Counsel, and Litigation Services.

The Litigation Services Unit is comprised of a team of litigators and support staff, and is responsible for representing CalSTRS in administrative hearings, writ proceedings, general litigation, and other legal proceedings. The Unit also works in conjunction with outside counsel on a variety of transactional and litigation matters.

Under the direction of the Assistant General Counsel and general direction of the General Counsel and/or Deputy General Counsel, the Attorney V is considered the lead Senior Counsel and is responsible for performing the most complex and most difficult litigation and legal services in connection with various CalSTRS activities. The Senior Counsel does not supervise lower-level attorney and staff but may act in a lead capacity over the work of other attorneys and staff. The incumbent is expected to litigate in the most complex and difficult areas of the Teachers' Retirement Law and other areas of the law, and represent CalSTRS in administrative hearings, general litigation, and other legal proceedings; draft advisory opinions and other legal opinions and documents; and oversee the work of outside counsel.

The ideal candidate will possess the following skills:

- Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, with all levels of staff and management.
- Strong organizational skills, ability to set priorities, effectively manage multiple projects, and meet deadlines within challenging and strict time constraints
- Demonstrated ability to analyze complex problems, draw sound conclusions, and make clear and concise recommendations
- Exhibits professional demeanor, and the ability to establish and maintain cooperative relations
- Ability to be a positive team player who represents CalSTRS core values
- Highly motivated self-starter with a strong work ethic and a high degree of integrity

Every 12 months, based on performance evaluation, employees may receive a 5% salary increase until they reach the maximum salary for the position.

Telework Information: We offer a hybrid approach including in-office and remote work solutions with staff working on-site at our Headquarters in West Sacramento 2-3 days per week.
